the rural children were displayed in the exhibition to further generate awareness among the college students and society.

IQAC coordinator and convener of the exhibition Dr Neeta Tapan remarked that social evil like child marriage is a major factor responsible for ill health of the mother and child and also for the exclusion of children from education which in turn retards human resource formation and national development. Child labour and child beggary are also not just social stigmas but economic impediments also.

In his presidential address principal Dr HL Anijwal said that such extension activities by youth develops a sense of social responsibility among them and helps them become informed citizens. Welcome address was given by Dr DC Khandelwal, HoD, sociology Programme was conducted by NSS coordinators Dr Hemlata Chouhan and Dr Chhaya Hardia. NCC cadets celebrate National Girl Child Day

FP NEWS SERVICE
Ujjain

NCC unit of Government Girls Post-Graduate College (GGPC) celebrated the National Girl Child Day by organising a symposium on 'Digital Generation Our Generation'.

IQAC coordinator and the chief speaker Dr Neeta Tapan said, girls should respect their gender and strive for gender equality at home, in society and in workplace.

Saving a girl and investing in her health and education is investing in a generation. Today digitization has empowered girls to have an increased outreach to information and communication technology, she added.

They should use this medium to disseminate gender equality issues and empower other females around through spreading digital literacy, she added.

Dr Nirmala Shah, senior professor and head of political science department, said that educated digital access will empower young voters in political sphere as the social media is the main source of camrassing and opinion formation in the current scenario.

In her presidential address Dr Rashmi Bhargava, convener of students union, said that there have been extraordinary women since ancient times and even today, the resilience of an ordinary woman is unmatched. Such celebrations reiterate the power of girls. The girls in armed forces participating in the parade of Republic Day are the symbols of equality and empowerment in the nation.

NCC cadet Sapna Rathore recited slogans on Girl Child Day and coordinated the programme. ANO Dr Saroj Ratnakar extended vote of thanks.

WORKSHOP ON SOUP MAKING

A workshop on soup making was organised by the home science department and IQAC of the GGPC on Tuesday. Presiding over the programme, principal in-charge Dr Anita Manchandia said that there are ready-to-serve and preserved food items in the market these days. They are full of artificial flavours and chemicals therefore they are very harmful for health. Freshly prepared food items are significant for a healthy family. Dr Shashi Prabha Jain, head of department, said we have to be very careful about our food habits. Dietician Nandita Khare taught participants preparation of soups using vegetables and fruits. Pharma and chemistry students of Government Girls' Postgraduate (excellent) College (GDC) performed plays at Hamukhedi and Daudkhedi villages, jointly organised by the college and Lions club. The students explained the scientific reasons of certain acts performed by occultists to villagers. For instance, they displayed how a lemon became reddish and how the outer part of coconut caught fire along with many other miracles, which are usually displayed by hypocritical 'babas' and occultists to impress innocent people.

At first villagers took the girls for occultists because of their attire and appearance but later the girls explained the reality of such miracles and appealed to the villagers not to fall prey to such hypocritical 'babas' and occultists. The convener of the awareness programme Dr Anita Manchandiya said people wanted immediate solutions to their problems by going to fake babas and occultists and ended up getting trapped in vicious circle of superstitions. Spokesperson Dr Vinod Kumar Gupta informed that Dharmesh Rathore, Prof GD Agrawal, Dr Vandana Malviya Kajal Pandey were present with the students during the programme.

In a bid to create mass awareness amid second corona wave a newsletter on measures to avoid Covid-19 was released during a programme on Monday.

The newsletter entitled "Pahal: A fight against Corona" containing activities done by NCC unit of Government Girls Post-graduate College through online and offline mode during the first wave of Corona pandemic last year was released by NCC Group Commander Indore Brigadier HR Desai and college principal Dr Anita Manchandia.

During the lockdown, all cadets kept themselves busy and fulfilled their responsibility towards the society and the country. They conducted activities online on social media such as messages, drawing competition, speech competition, slogan writing, use of mask etc. All these activities have been compiled in a news letter under the guidance of Lieutenant Saroj Vikram Ratnakar.

The news letter was appreciated by ADG of Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh Directorate, Major General Sanjay Sharma. The back page of the newsletter has been dedicated to the corona warriors, showing paintings of corona viruses made by cadets. On the release of this newsletter, greetings were sent by all teachers and staff of the college.
